CORPORATE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 26.1 of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and Circuit Rule 26.1, the undersigned counsel for the Coalition for Fair Transmission Policy (“CFTP”), states as follows:

CFTP is an unincorporated professional association of group of geographically and structurally diverse investor-owned electric utilities formed for the purpose of supporting legislative and regulatory policies that will lead to customer-focused development of the nation’s electric transmission systems and clean generation resources.¹ A fundamental goal of the Coalition is to ensure that any effort to improve transmission planning is built upon existing successful, coordinated, open, and transparent local and regional processes, and is inclusive of all stakeholders. The orders of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission made subject of this petition directly impact the policies and goals advanced by the CFTP.

Respectfully submitted,
